

The Small Suds Sisters!

The "Small Suds Sisters" was formed several years after the "Big Beer Brotherhood". Tobi Hicks (supplying this info) was one of the founders. It was "inspired" by the BBB but not named after it particularly. Tobi says this is NOT a female version of BBB! It was designed for the wives of collectors who wanted to get to know one another. The trips they have today were much later. Originally it was just a meeting. In the beginning the women had "small" collections—either small in size or small in quantity. That "small" thing was dropped very shortly after, but the idea of meeting other wives grew and flourished, as you know! They are a great addition to the hobby and we look forward to an indepth article in the Magazine some time in the future. Editor: Who wants to step up and write this one?
